SECOND DAY.

The Cabrillo Celebration at San Diego.

Great Crowds Attend the "Fiesta" of the Indians.

Receptions on Board the San Francisco and Baltimore.

Aquatic Sports Witnessed by Many—The Day's Festivities Close with a Grand Ball at the Hotel del Coronado.

By Telegram to the Times.

SAN DIEGO, Sept. 29.—[Special.] There was a marked falling off in the crowds today. Many of the visitors left at 10 o'clock when the afternoon train after the procession Wednesday, while most of those who came in by private conveyance got away before nightfall. Still there were enough left to make a good showing and the streets presented an animated appearance this morning.

The large crowds that had been accommodated at the Coronado came over on the early boats, and for the most part proceeded to the stockade on D street, where the Indians were corralled, and where the Fiesta was to be held at 10 o'clock. There were visited the points of interest about the city, while others scattered along the waterfront, took sails on the bay and visited the warships. As on the first day of the celebration, the local committees busied themselves in looking after the visitors, and made a favorable impression by their uniform courtesy. In this connection, it might not be out of place to remark that notwithstanding the large crowds, there was no oversteering of any kind or description, nor was there any advance in the price of accommodations. The hotels from the Coronado down to the smaller houses, only charged the regular rates; the service was good, the fare substantial, and the expense moderate. In this respect, an example was set which it would be a good thing for more pretentious cities than San Diego to follow. There was no complaint on any score, and the visitors left with the best feelings for the place, carrying with them the impression that they had been handsomely entertained, with a pleasant recollection of the absence of those "stand-and-deliver" methods so often practiced on such occasions.

THE INDIAN FIESTA.
The Indians have proved to be one of the best features of the show. There are about 150 of them, representing the Diegueño and Luiseno tribes, and they are the direct descendants of the Indians who first greeted Cabrillo on his landing in San Diego 350 years ago. They are headed by the old chief, Gen. Pablo, with several minor chiefs, and comprise the pick of the two tribes. There are several centenarians among them, and one old woman has been seen at least 128 summers, and, presumably, the same number of winters. Only there are no winters in Southern California. She is not a handsome piece of brick, but is certainly unique, and it is well worth a trip to see her. Like the others, the old woman is picturesque, dirty, only made so, if possible, and resembles nothing so much as a recently exhumed mummy, to which a considerable amount of clay still adheres. She has been surrounded by a crowd of curious spectators ever since her arrival, but no one seems to take any notice of anything. It is stated that her husband is still living, at the age of 140 years, but was too feeble to stand the long trip, and was left on the reservation. There was a large crowd about the corral this morning to see the animals feed, and the sight was worth looking at. They are very hearty eaters, in fact might be called gluttonous without stretching the truth, their whole life being to get on the outside of as much provender as possible in the shortest possible time, and everything goes from beef and bread to watermelons and every other kind of fruit or vegetable. Nothing is wasted, and during the three days they have been on the grounds they have consumed in the neighborhood of 2000 pounds of fresh beef alone. They take on fat very readily, and the effects of their high living, even for this brief period, is quite noticeable.

The hour for the commencement of the Fiesta had been fixed for 10 o'clock, but before the time the corral was uncomfortably crowded. The admission fee was only 10 cents, and the people continued to pour inside the inclosure and in their eagerness to watch the performance, pressed toward the corral until no room was left for the dancers. At Father Ubach's order the dance was then stopped and a rope put about an inclosure of about 50x75 feet. The crowd was kept outside the rope. This gave the Indians room, and the men and women then filed into the inclosure, and in full costume, danced the waltz dance. The old women at once caught the sides of the space, where they squatted upon the ground in regular rows. They remained inactive, except to lend their voices to the chant which followed. The men formed themselves in a large circle. All were naked to the waist except a covering of black and green, yellow and red paint with which they had decorated themselves. Below the waist, the men wore girdles and a skirt, but the skirt is not an essential part of the performance. Any of the Indians could have got along just as well without it. After the men had ranged in a circle, Chief Pedro Pablo gave the signal for the dance by shaking an old tomahawk can half filled with small stones. There was in response a dissonant grunt, then another grunt a little louder and more prolonged. Then the women began to chant in certain time and measure, and as cadences rose and fell a musical system was discovered. A young buck, a sub-chief named La Joro, was presently moved to great effort. He sprang out from the crowd to lead the dance, and for an hour spun around the circle, bearing his war club high aloft. Sometimes his movements had a waltz motion, at other times it was a dog trot, but it all appeared to be regulated by the chant. The men in the circle danced in their tracks.

The exhibition was greatly enjoyed by the crowd, who remained until the noon hour when the corral was cleared to give the Indians an opportunity to prepare their dinner, which operation, however, was witnessed by a large number of small boys, through conventional cracks in the fence, not a few grown people also availing themselves of the same privilege.

THE WHITE CRUISERS.
The cruisers Baltimore and Charleston, which were anchored a short distance out in the harbor, were the center of attraction during the afternoon, and many persons took advantage of the invitation to visit the warships, which were open to the public from 12:30 to 3 o'clock. Gov. Markham, Gov. Torres, Gen. McCook and Gen. Johnson with their several staffs and several of the prominent visitors called on Admiral Gherardi by special invitation on board the Flag ship in a body at 1:00 o'clock. They were received with proper honors and, with visitors of a less degree, enjoyed the freedom of the cruiser to the fullest extent. As long as the cruiser remained in the bay they will be open to visitors from 12 to 3 p.m.

AQUATIC SPORTS.
Today the bay was covered with yachts and craft of every description. The aquatic sports, were highly interesting and attracted many spectators. The sailing races were over a course from the Pacific Coast Steamship Company's wharf to National City and returned.

Gold medals were awarded to the winners of various events as follows: Incoog, Volunteer and Climate. The single rowing races were won by J. T. Ackman and the R. Matthews, and the lightweight crew of four beat the heavyweight crew of the same number. The swimming race had three entries, and was won by Charles Collier.

THE EVENING FESTIVITIES.
Tonight the Indian villages are thronged with visitors, a large number are listening to the First Cavalry Band, U.S.A., at the plaza, and a full-dress ball is going on at the Hotel del Coronado, where civil and army and navy officers are congregated in force. The Mexican band is furnishing music for the cruiser, and the latter is making a searchlight display on the bay.

TODAY'S PROGRAMME.
The programme for tomorrow includes a vaquero tournament at the Coronado race track, for which elaborate preparations have been made, further Indian sports, a concert by all the bands, aided by the instrumental soloists of distinction, the entertainment being in charge of the local company of naval reserves, and the celebration closing with a fine exhibition of fireworks at the big Hotel del Coronado.

THE BALL.
A Grand Wind-up of the Second Days Celebration.
SAN DIEGO, Sept. 29.—[Special.] The second day of the Cabrillo celebration was brought to a fitting close tonight by a grand ball at the Coronado Hotel, given for the army and navy officers and other distinguished guests. The special features in the decorations of the magnificent dancing hall for this occasion were the draperies of American and Mexican flags. When the first strains of music filled the hall from the well-behaved instruments of the Mexican Military Band there were 500 guests assembled to participate in the festivities of the evening. It is not often that the lovers of the dance are privileged to dance to the excellent music of this distinguished band, and all who were so fortunate as to be favored with an invitation, and could do so, attended this ball.

Among the guests were the elite not only of San Diego but of many other cities of Southern California, while the good cord and the happy and hearty greetings on the breasts of the veterans of the army and navy relieved the conventional black of the civilian. There was an abundance of diamonds to make brilliant the many handsome costumes of the fair sex, whose forming a scene rich and brilliant and long to be remembered.

Throughout the evening refreshments were served in the breakfast room. Here the electric lights were made mellow by heavy festoons of smilax drooping from the chandeliers, while suspended from ropes of smilax, stretched from center to circumference, were large Japanese lanterns. The tables were strewn with strands of smilax. It was one of the most elaborate balls ever given at this famous resort.

Among the many distinguished guests were the following: Rear Admiral Bancroft Gherardi and Capt. Bridgeman, Lieut. Potter and Lieut. Hunt of his staff, Lieut. Commander Woodhall, Lieut. Blacking, Mr. Doyle and Knapp, Ensigns Willes, Hayward, Schofield, Taylor, Borden and Allen; Passed Assistant Surgeon White, Assistant Surgeon Pigott, Paymaster Woodhall, Chief Engineer Potts, Assistant Engineer Bartlett, Jones, Day and Hartrath; Passed Assistant Engineer Hall, Cadets Crank and Porter, Gunner Hawley, Carpenter Waldemeyer, Pay Clerk Long and others.

PACED IN 2:04.

Mascot's Great Performance in a Race.

World's Record Smashed and Nancy Hanks's Trotting Time Equalled.

Martha Wilkes Tots a Mile in a Great Race in 2:08 1-4.

Stallion Kremlin's Fast at Mystic Park—A Day of Record Breaking All Around—Grasswood and La-tonia Races.

By Telegram to the Times.

INDIANAPOLIS, Sept. 29.—[By the Associated Press.] The Sentinel's special from Terre Haute says that the world's pacing record was smashed today by Mascot. It was in the free-for-all match, in which Flying Jib, with Starr up, Guy with McHenry, and Mascot, with Billy Andrews, participated. In the first heat Mascot drew ahead at the half. Flying Jib pressed hard, but in vain. At the three-quarters Mascot led by a length, and with a terrific rush came into the home stretch. Starr, in desperate earnestness, picked the whip and the two flew under the wire a throat latch apart, time and Hal Pointers' record being smashed by one and a quarter seconds, and the pacing record by three seconds, Mascot winning in 2:04. The quarters were 32 1/2, 1:03 1/2, 1:38. The third quarter was done in 2:03 1/2.

The second heat was a beautiful start. Guy broke in the first eighth. Mascot drew ahead at the quarter. Flying Jib reached up and drew ahead at the half in 1:00 1/2. This time for the first half was remarkable. At the three-quarters Flying Jib led by two lengths. Mascot came hard and making an effort to reduce his deficit. It was impossible, however, and Flying Jib finished in 2:05 1/2, the quarters being 30 1/2, 1:00 1/2, 1:31 1/2. The second quarter in 30 seconds is the world's record.

In the third heat Guy went whirling off at the turn in a wonderful manner. Mascot second, and Flying Jib third. At the five-eighths they were in a bunch, but Mascot lost his advantage in the fourth eighth. Guy came in first, in 2:06 1/2. The quarters were 32 1/2, 1:04 1/2, 1:34 1/2.

In the fourth heat they went around the turn abreast. Mascot broke at the eighth and Guy forged ahead. Flying Jib clung close to him till the stretch, when Guy got about fifty feet advantage. Time 2:08 1/4. The quarters were 32, 1:03 1/2, 1:34 1/2.

Guy won the fifth heat and race. Mascot second, Flying Jib third, in 2:08 1/4, closing the most exciting and memorable pace in the annals of the turf. Pacing, 2:13 class: Cleveland S. won, Vintona second, John Jett third, others distanced; best time 2:09 1/2. Trotting, 2:28 class: Chifurita won three straight heats, Diego second, Sabina third, Miss Lido fourth; best time 2:16 1/2.

Free for all pace: Guy won, Flying Jib second, Mascot third; best time 2:04. Trotting, 2:22 class: Major won, Edith Sprague second, Jalisco third, Maloch fourth; best time 2:14 1/2. Pacing, 2:20 class (unfurnished): Flowing Tide took the only heat in 2:18 1/2.

ANOTHER RECORD LOWERED.
Martha Wilkes Tots a Mile in 2:08 1-4 in a Race.
EVANVILLE (Ind.), Sept. 29.—[By the Associated Press.] Budd Doble broke another world's record this afternoon. He drove Martha Wilkes a mile in the free-for-all trot in 2:08 1/4. It was announced from the judges' stand that it was the greatest heat ever trotted in America, the other great records having been made against time.

SANTA BARBARA.

The Democrats Select Their Senatorial Candidate.

The Democratic Senatorial convention which met here on Wednesday nominated W. E. Shepherd, an attorney of Ventura, for Senator from this district, and not Mr. Hall as reported yesterday. Mr. Shepherd has signified his acceptance, and the race will be between the two Ventura attorneys, Orestes Orr, Republican, and W. E. Shepherd, Democrat, with the chances decidedly in the latter.

The Republican convention named the following gentlemen as the County Central Committee: J. M. Tamm, J. M. Howard, J. M. Short, J. W. Targgart, J. M. Hallaway, A. M. Boyd, W. E. Johnson, A. McLean, John Night Watchman Miller of Ventura came to Santa Barbara yesterday morning and was charged with petty larceny, but failed to find him. On his way home he observed the man, who was wearing a light-colored shirt and light-colored trousers, entering a building on the corner of Santa Barbara and Washington streets. He left the man, arrested his man, brought him back to Santa Barbara and took him to Ventura where he was committed to jail.

Edwarlo de la Cuesta of Santa Ynez, and James Donohoe of the same town returned home yesterday morning and were charged with petty larceny. They were committed to jail.

A shipment of twenty tons of asphalt was made yesterday for the city of Santa Barbara. It was loaded on a truck and was being driven by a man named John M. Smith, while riding down State street Wednesday night on his bicycle. He had the misfortune to fall off the back of the truck and was killed. The dog grabbed the wheel, biting through the rubber, and also caught the driver's leg. The driver was thrown from the truck and was killed. The dog was killed by the effects of which he was

The day of days is nearing—October 21, 1892—the quadricentennial anniversary of the discovery of America by immortal Christopher Columbus.

The Los Angeles Times has fixed upon this historic and glorious date for the issuance of a special illustrated Columbian Number, to consist of twenty-four pages (besides a four-page illustrated supplement) descriptive of Los Angeles and Southern California.

THE press of the East has behaved scandalously toward Lizzie Borden, the suspected murderer, who as yet is, so far as proof is concerned, an innocent girl. It has hounded her with cowardly and unmanly innuendoes, of which the following, from the Kansas City Star, is a sample:

"It appears that Miss Lizzie Borden feels greatly injured because the papers censure her for her stolid behavior. She says: 'They criticize me because I do not weep, but they do not see me when I am alone or with my intimate friends.' This recalls the story of the Hebrew gentleman who was felicitated by a friend upon the feeling which he manifested at his wife's funeral. 'H—!' replied the sorrowing widower. 'That was nothing. You ought to have seen how I took on at the grave.'" coal supply to employ as a stimulating factor in our ocean commerce, we accomplish a tremendous stroke of enterprise. Back this up with the stimulus of manufacturing, which is sure to result, and our future prosperity is assured beyond any present calculations. Now these points are so self-evident that they are entitled to rank as axiomatic. They do not need to be supported by argument. This being granted, all we need to ask ourselves is, how can this most desirable result be brought about?

As Horace Greeley used to say about resumption, "The way to resume is to resume." The way to begin this enterprise is to begin it. Organizing a company, subscribe the capital to start it along, enlist the big railroad companies which are already favorably disposed to it, and want a Pacific Coast outlet and—build the Salt Lake road.

We understand that the matter is to be placed in this business-like aspect at once. In a few days our merchants, capitalists and land-owners will be waited upon by solicitors, asking them to subscribe to the capital stock of the proposed road. One well-known citizen has already subscribed $10,000 and another $5000. This makes a good start. Let our citizens back this up as they should, and as they can afford to do, and the requisite $100,000 to start the project will soon be forthcoming.

Mr. Taylor proposes an additional inducement to subscribers by issuing to them paid-up non-assessable stock in his iron and coal companies to the full value of the subscriptions. This is a matter entirely between Mr. Taylor and the subscribers. Outside of this, we advocate the subscriptions on the merits of the railroad itself and the general benefits to the country. The men who have most to gain by the enterprise—who have large investments in business, lands and other properties—are the ones who ought to come forward with substantial subscriptions.

Cannot Vote for Free-trade.

George Tricker Curtis, the eminent constitutional lawyer, who has been a shining light in the Democratic party for so many years, does not believe in doing things by halves. When he has convictions, he believes in backing them up with actions. We quoted a few days ago, his views on the anti-protection plank of the Democratic platform. Therein he repudiated in toto, the Democratic pronouncement on the levying of a protective tariff by the Government on imports from foreign countries, which fully explains itself.

RICHARD SPRINGS (N. Y.) Sept. 12.—Willard F. Wakeman, Esq., general secretary of the American Protective Tariff League: Dear Sir:—In fulfillment of my promise made in response to your letter of the 7th inst., I proceed to give you my views of the protective tariff as it has been made by the two political parties in the present campaign. First, however, let me observe, by way of preface to what I am about to say, that although I have for very many years acted and voted with the Democratic party, I cannot do so in the coming Presidential election. A vote for the nominee of the late Democratic National Convention will mean a vote for free trade.

A MODERN SEER
To Whom the Minds of Men are as an Open Book.
Now and then there is most forcibly illustrated the truth of the old adage, "The greatest study of mankind is man," and certainly a most interesting subject for study is Prof. J. G. Leonard, a gentleman who now has rooms at the Larkensham Hotel. Three streets in this city, and to whom the minds of men are like an open book. Two centuries ago he would have been accused of witchcraft and would have met the fate of those who were punished for dealing in the black arts. Leonard is a man of pleasant address, more than ordinary intelligence, bright, vivacious and altogether genial, but he is a most marvelous necromancer, possessing such occult power as leaves no doubt as to the genuineness of his capability to accomplish mental feats such as few in any age have been able to perform.

The San Francisco Report says of him: "Whether it be the description and date of a coin concealed in your pocket, or the number of your watch (which, most likely, you are ignorant of), the maiden name of your mother, or the date of the birth of the child whom he has not seen and of whom you have told him nothing—the name and nature of your bodily or mental ailment, or some concerning your health, he will readily answer—whether one or all of these things it matters not. They are to him solved as he solves a puzzle, and he is so solved as to leave no doubt of the genuineness of his power and to inspire you with wonder and admiration of his divine gifts."

Prof. Leonard is a medium, a clairvoyant and whatever else wonderful you may be pleased to call him. He reads your secrets, he tells you of your hidden faults and foibles, he tells you of the dangers that beset a contemplated journey or a business venture, he directs you to "rest" or "go on" to the better way to success, and if he wills to do so can remove your disease and make you whole.

In the hands of actors of such excellence a performance should ensue, as the play is one that ran for 150 nights in New York the past season.

FACILITY RECEPTION.

Wednesday evening last President and Mrs. Ferguson of the Southern California College, tendered a reception to the faculty and students. A large number of guests from the city were present, and the board of trustees of the institution was represented by its president, Rev. Dr. Burton of Riverside and Mr. Hale of this city. The evening passed in music and conversation, and will be long and pleasantly remembered by those present.

SOCIAL SOCIETIES.

Rev. and Mrs. A. C. Smith will receive the members and friends of the Temple Christian Church this afternoon and evening at their home on South Hope street instead of at the church.

Count von Schmidt and wife left yesterday morning for their home in Tullahoma, Tenn. They were accompanied by Mrs. Hurd, who will spend the winter with them.

Miss Anna E. Lemon left yesterday for Louisville, Ky., where she will probably pass the winter.

Miss Annie Salmon has returned from a month's delightful visit with friends in Santa Rosa.

H. J. Kramer gives his opening reception of the season next Thursday evening at his new hall, No. 139 West Fifth street.

Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Scott are guests of Hotel Rose at Ventura.

It will be noticed that George Darby, one of the favorites of the last winter's Apollos, is now drawing salary from Uncle. He will prove a star in the California League, and will be pitching shut-out ball before the season ends, although "Kid" Hulien might be able to give the other sluggers some points about straightening out Darby's curves.

He will visit his lady acquaintances and also chase a few feathered micks who play the second cock Robinson will probably be closing a mortgage on the city of Oakland soon if his young men keep up the good work.

The Count yesterday received notice from President Mone that $70 in fines had been levied against the Angels during recent home series. These players were all put out of the game, who exhibited a letter from Mone one afternoon in the local dressing-room, and then announced that "youse fellers don't want to make no noise after this or I'll make you every time, see!" Vanderbeek has heretofore been unable to get any statement from President Mone about the financial affairs of the league, but will stop over long enough to give you my views of the protective tariff as it has been made by the two political parties in the present campaign.

THE COURTS.

The Trial of the Lowell-Parker Case Concluded.

A Sealed Verdict Returned by the Jury After Long Deliberation.

The McFarland-Weisendanger Case Referred to the Commissioner.

Minor Matters of Interest Given Air by the Courtrooms—Maj. Twine Arrested for Threats to Kill—New Suits.

The trial of the breach of promise suit instituted against Leonard Parker of Anaheim by his deceased wife's sister, Mrs. Helen M. Lowell of this city, was resumed before Judge Van Dyke and a jury in Department Four yesterday morning, in the presence of a large number of interested spectators.

The first witness called was Mrs. Eva A. Parker, the defendant's second wife, a petite brunette, about 30 years of age, who was merely examined as to the transfer of the property to her by her husband.

The defendant, Leonard Parker, then took the witness stand. He denied generally and specifically every allegation made by the plaintiff, and was especially emphatic in his denial of the alleged promise to marry Mrs. Lowell. He stated that he has always treated her as became the sister of his deceased wife, both before and after the death of his first wife. He admitted having kissed her, but declared that he had not done so more frequently since the death of her sister than before that unhappy event. He explained the circumstance of his having raised money on his Anaheim property and given it to Miss Lowell, by stating that Mrs. Lowell and her daughter, who were renting rooms, wanted a home, and he agreed to purchase a certain house and lot in this city and install them therein, merely as an investment, for which he was to receive security. As he did not wish to appear in the transaction the money was given to Miss Lowell, who was to pay for the property, and receive the deed therefor; but owing to a defect in the title the deal was never consummated, and Miss Lowell was allowed to retain the money until another suitable house should be found. He identified two deeds covering six and three acres of land at Anaheim to his second wife. They were dated November 18 and December 4, 1891 respectively; the considerations being $10 in the first and $50 in the second.

Ernest T. Parker, a son, and Mrs. E. L. Lewis and Mrs. Lydia T. Wood, daughters of the defendant, were briefly examined as to minor details, and the defense then rested its case.

In the rebuttal Miss May B. Lowell, a compositress, testified that she earned from $25 to $30 per week at her trade and provided for her mother, the defendant, until he gave her the money with which to purchase the house. She still had this money, which was a gift to her; but her mother did not receive any of it.

Mrs. A. T. Brown, Robert A. Brown and Miss Eva A. Parker were also called in rebuttal, and the close of their testimony both sides closed.

At 2:20 o'clock p. m. E. C. Munday, Esq., commenced his opening address to the jury, and at 9 o'clock he gave way to S. M. White, Esq., who engaged the attention of his auditors for another forty minutes, when Attorney Munday again took up the cudgel on behalf of his client, and closed the argument at 4:15 o'clock. Twenty minutes later the jury retired to their room, where they remained in custody of Bailiff McIntyre until 6 o'clock p. m., when the Court notified them that counsel had consented, in the event of their coming to an agreement later in the evening to return a sealed verdict, which should be opened at 9:30 o'clock this morning. The jury were then taken to dinner, returning shortly after 7 o'clock.

REFERRED TO THE COMMISSIONER.

The case of Dan McFarland vs. Theodore Weisendanger, an action to recover $10,850, was called for trial by Judge Wade in Department Three yesterday morning, but was referred to the Court Commissioner with directions to take an accounting and report his findings thereon.

The plaintiff in this case alleged in his complaint that the defendant owed him $17,000 which had been collected by him for plaintiff, and the further sum of $2550, money advanced to defendant at his special instance and request.

The defendant, on the other hand, avers in his answer that this suit grew out of business relations between the plaintiff, W. H. Bonnell and himself. That in 1887 all three contracted for their joint benefit for the Arlington Heights tract, the profits from which were to be divided equally. It was a part of their agreement that all the money paid in to improvement account of this tract by any one should bear interest at 6 per cent, and be repaid, and that whichever of the three handled the account was to receive 2½ per cent. for his services. He alleges that he and Bonnell, who were partners, handled the account for some time and then he alone did so for a period, but finally all three expressed a desire to terminate their business. He claims that McFarland owes about $28,000 on account of the venture, and therefore asks that their affairs be settled up, and that the Court determine what is due from McFarland.

Court Notes.

Judge Clark was occupied all day yesterday in listening to the testimony in the case of M. S. Cummings vs. S. A. Randall, an action to recover $2500 damages for alleged breach of contract.

The matter was concluded, and went over until this morning.

Judge Van Dyke yesterday morning rendered his decision in the case of O. J. Barker et al. vs. John Maskell et al., an action to recover a chattel mortgage for $1481.99 on the furniture of a lodging-house at No. 451 South Spring street, judgment being rendered in favor of the plaintiff therein as prayed for.

In the report of the Lowell-Parker case yesterday morning an error was inadvertently made with reference to the witness Brown, who testified as to the payment of the money to Miss Lowell. It was not the son-in-law of the defendant who was testified, but a witness of the same name.

In the case of Wendell Diac vs. H. H. Barker, an action to recover possession of a quarter section of land in the northern part of the county, the defendant withdrew his answer yesterday morning and allowed the matter to go by default, whereupon Judge McKinley, by consent, ordered judgment for the plaintiff therein as prayed for, without damages or costs.

Judge McKinley yesterday morning vacated and set aside the order of the court made recently directing the defendant in the case of J. L. Partell vs. E. J. Williams to pay $24 jurors' fees within thirty days time.

"Maj." C. H. Twine, a negro politician, was arrested yesterday upon complaint of his wife, who charged him with having threatened to kill her because she left her house to watch the circus parade yesterday morning. It was taken before Justice Stanton, who remanded him to the County Jail in default of bonds in the sum of $800 to insure his appearance in the Township Court on Monday next.

IN POLITICS.

Republicans Organizing All Over the County.

Farmers Taking a Deep Interest in the Next Election.

The Old Soldiers are Falling in Line to a Man.

Arranging for Coming Meetings—Rousing Gatherings Last Night—Political News Notes from Various Points.

The local campaign continues to move along in peace and quiet, with well-organized movements furthering the interests of each of the two recognized parties thoroughly at work. The supporters of the untitled are strong in the belief that the county is going to base their only fear as to the outcome upon the possibility of the Republicans carrying the city strong enough to offset their expected majority in the county.

Outside the city it is safe to say that more real interest is being awakened among the tillers of the soil than ever before in the issues at stake, for the countrymen have begun to realize, or at any rate imagine, that questions of political economy directly affecting their interests hinge upon the outcome of the November election. The movement of the Democrats in the establishment of clubs, however, is a desultory one compared with the enthusiasm which the Republicans manifest in their work of organization. Reports from day to day swell the number of those enrolled in the ranks, and large crowds are greeting Republican speakers in all quarters.

The statement that the Grand Army men were falling into line with the Democratic following in Southern California is far from correct, as was evinced by the rousing meeting held by the staunch veterans in the Lincoln Club rooms several evenings since. The old soldiers pledge themselves unequivocally to support the party of protection. They will assemble for a meeting, however, in the same quarters, when it is expected that delegates from the entire southern counties will be present to augment their rapidly increasing numbers.

The grand Republican mass-meeting to be held Saturday evening at the Wigwam will be the signal for an immense gathering and a forerunner of the more imposing events to follow.

Tonight there will be a meeting at the bank addressed by W. M. Stinson and Mr. McLaughlin, and another at Long Beach, where Judge S. O. Houghton and W. H. Wright will expound the Republican creed.

MONROVIA.

Monrovia comes to the front with one of the largest clubs in the county outside of the city of Los Angeles. A permanent organization has been completed with the following officers: W. H. Cook, president, U. S.

RAILROAD AFFAIRS.

Progress of Work on the Mt. Wilson Road.

A Mountain Peak Named for the Road's Promoter.

Rumor, About the Southern Pacific Traffic Department.

The Southern California Road and Its Band Concert—Earnings of the Santa Fe—Local Notes.

A ship-load of bridge timber sawed to order for the trestles and bridges of the Mt. Wilson Railway recently arrived at San Pedro from Puget Sound and was at once forwarded to Altadena, where it is now being framed, and track-laying to the first bridge will be completed within eight days. An important and interesting event took place on the Sierra Madre last Friday. A party of capitalists from Los Angeles and Pasadena made a tour of inspection over the route of the Mt. Wilson Railway, and on reaching the summit, upon which the great hotel is to be built, learned that this conspicuous peak, commanding the finest view to be had from any point in the entire range, was without a name. Acting on the spur of the moment they organized themselves into a committee, appointed a chairman and proceeded to supply the deficiency. Hon. T. W. Brotherton of Los Angeles moved that this lofty peak, 6000 feet above the waters of the Pacific shining in the distance, be christened "Mt. Lowe," in honor of the promoter of the railway enterprise.

MUSIC AT REDWOOD.
A dispatch from S. B. Hyman, general passenger agent of the Southern California road, now at San Diego, says: "Gov. Torres and staff, with President Diaz's great military band, and the famous First Cavalry, U.S.A., Band will leave here Saturday for Redondo, where the two bands will participate in a grand international band concert Sunday, October 2."

SCRAP HEAP.
July gross earnings of the Santa Fe proper are half a million greater than two years ago, and the added expense is but $140,000, leaving net $400,000 greater for July, 1892, than July, 1890, a remarkable rate of progress. Of course everybody knows that the Southern California road did not carry 30,000 people to San Diego this week, as was stated yesterday. The number which the writer intended to quote was 5000, but even that exceeds the volume of business by about 1000.

Col. J. M. Crawley, assistant general freight and passenger agent of the Southern Pacific, returned yesterday from a week's sojourn at San Francisco, conferring with the officials at Fourth and Townsend streets. It is understood that as a result of this visit there will become effective a change in the policy of the road in Southern California.

Incorporated.
Articles of incorporation were filed with the County Clerk yesterday by the McDonald Company of Wilmington, formed for the purpose of owning and operating mills, storing grain and hay, and carrying on a general merchandise and produce business, with a capital stock of $40,000, of which $15,000 has been actually subscribed. Its board of directors consists of E. N. McDonald, Francis Furrier, W. S. McDonald and W. E. Keller of Wilmington, and J. B. Alexander of this city. Orange Grove Encampment, No. 91, I.O.O.F., also filed articles of incorporation yesterday. Its board of directors being Gustav Helmann, Richard Livingston, James Ashman, Adolph Franck and Louis E. Vollmer, all of this city. It has no capital stock.

PETTY CRIMINALS.

A Chinese Forger Gathered in by the Hawkshaw.
The first genuine Chinese forger ever heard of in this city was gathered in by the authorities yesterday, and as that type of criminal is unknown among Hawkshaws, every detective about the central station had a good look at him as soon as he was marched into the main office.

The fellow was arrested by Constable Clement under the name of Wong Hong Wy, alias Dick Sang, on a warrant from Justice Owen's department of the Police Court.

The complaint sets forth that Dick, as he is called in Chinatown, on the 18th inst. forged the Allen Bros' check for $62, which he presented at the First National Bank and collected. Dick has forged a number of checks in this city, especially among his own people. He is well known in Chinatown and has always stood well among the Chinese business men. He is a very smooth Chinaman and has been educated at the Chinese mission schools. When searched yesterday the officers found a number of forged checks on his person. He was taken before Justice Owens and will be examined today.

CRIMINAL NOTES.
A prominent real estate agent and a member of an improvement company, who sails under the same name, had a desperate fight in the Burdick Block yesterday morning at 11 o'clock. Both men were badly used up. There were no arrests.

Paul de Ana, the Tulare sneak-thief, who stole a valise in this city a few days ago, was sentenced to 180 days in the chain gang by Justice Austin yesterday.

Pat Garrity and Mrs. Pat Garrity, who were convicted in Justice Austin's department of the Police Court day before yesterday, was sentenced yesterday. Mrs. Garrity was required to put up $10 and her husband $6.

The Supervisors.
At the meeting of the Board of Supervisors yesterday the application of John N. Wolff of Palmdale for a saloon license was granted conditionally upon his filing the necessary bond.

At the request of the petitioners further proceedings in the matter of the formation of the proposed Manzanita Irrigation District was ordered dismissed.

Please remember the above address and preserve this advertisement.

To Whom it May Concern: I have been sick for nearly two years with suffering with great pains in the back, head, coughing and weakness, and unable to get out from bed for some time. About three weeks ago, having called on Dr. Hong Sol for consultation, who pronounced that I was afflicted with kidney disease and lung troubles. He insured me by locating how and where it pains me; and also explained how and when I could the most, etc. At once I began to try his medicine, which I found it to be a great help to me. I had taken his medicine for three weeks and now I am well. This is to certify that Dr. Hong Sol has cured me of my sickness, and I am cheerfully recommending him to the public.

To Whom it May Concern: I have been sick with headache, pain in back and shoulders and been pain in my lungs. I tried two doctors and they said I had the la grippe. Not being satisfied I came to Dr. Hong Sol. He told me where there were any pains, and I took a few doses of his medicine and found it improved me very much, and after taken fifteen doses I find myself strong once more.

"Skillful cure increases longevity to the world."

The above are two fac-similes of many REWARDS OF MERIT or DIPLOMAS of PROFESSIONAL SKILL, which have from time to time been awarded to the CELEBRATED CHINESE PHYSICIAN, DR. WONG, for his superior medical abilities and curative powers. It has long been customary among the Chinese people when one becomes sick and when repeated attempts to cure him have failed, and he is perhaps given up to die, if after having been taken to an eminent physician, he be cured of his disease—the cured, too in addition to the regular fee for professional services rendered, makes the physician a present as a token of gratitude for his restoration to health and the prolongation of his life. This present consists usually of a broad plank, presenting much the appearance of a sign-board, filled with characters entirely meaningless to the average English scholar, but full of meaning to the successful physician and his friends. It is a motto which highly compliments the physician for his great skill in effecting a cure of the disease which once afflicted the donor.

It is not an uncommon thing to see a great number of these COMPLIMENTARY DIPLOMAS adorning the office walls of Chinese physicians in their native country, and indeed a number of the most successful ones in this country are the happy possessors of a few of these high tokens of very superior medical ability.

WHAT a tremendous crowd we had yesterday. The big millinery opening brought out everybody. We continue our millinery opening today and tomorrow. Come and see. It will be a feast for your eyes. A cordial invitation is extended competing milliners to visit us during our opening. The big cloak room had a big crowd. A lot of the finer garments were sold along with the cheaper. We have cloaks as low as $2.50 and up to $75.00. It is the largest stock ever shown in this city; it is larger today than all the cloak houses combined. The sales are beginning to assume mammoth proportions. As the cool weather gets nearer quick buying is the result, and it is the same in dress goods. Our sales in the dress goods department have doubled over last season. The 50c line is used as an advertisement. We sacrifice profits to gain trade and good words for our big dress goods stock; 50c a yard for goods worth 65c, 75c and 85c; a year ago we sold no better goods for a dollar. Low profits bring increased trade. Storm serges; they are popular. Navy blues are very scarce; we still have an ample supply. Take time by the forelock and buy navy blues now. They will be hard to find a little later in the season. Every day brings new faces and larger sales to the dress goods counter. We encourage trade by treating people right. Samples given freely and goods shown with the greatest freedom. It is not a question for us to ask, Do you want to buy, but how well can we serve you by showing you what we have for sale. There is no importuning to buy. If you wish to look elsewhere, certainly we want you to; but in looking at our 50c line we want you to carefully look at the quality as well as style. We have not sacrificed quality for profit. P. and P. kid gloves; they are the best in the world; every pair will give perfect satisfaction; best in fit, long fingers, well made, selected skins and choice shades; the blacks are as good as the colors. Closing out the shoe department at cost; that means a saving of a dollar a pair to you. Gaining more trade than any three houses in the city.

PASADENA.

Presbytery Closes After an Interesting Session.

Laundries That are Prejudicial to Health. Republican Rally Next Week—Celebrate Columbus Day—Brevities.

The devotional exercises yesterday morning were led by Rev. B. E. Howard of the First church of Los Angeles. After the regular opening of the session of presbytery, Rev. Mr. Lockard of Los Olivos made a report in regard to providing for the traveling expenses of members of presbytery to and from the meeting, and his recommendations were approved.

Rev. Mr. Weller brought in a report on the summer school at Santa Ana, and his recommendations were approved.

Five trustees of presbytery were then elected and various routine matters occupied the attention of the meeting.

Rev. Mr. Newell reported overtures in regard to the appointment of "deacons" in the church. Rev. Mr. Young of Boyle Heights spoke enthusiastically in favor of this proposition. The recommendation was also reported.

The report on home missions was then read by the chairman, Rev. Mr. Fife of Pasadena, and it and the various recommendations of grants to mission churches were adopted.

Rev. Mr. Strong read a memorial testimony to the great and good work of the late Dr. Kennedy, secretary of the Board of Home Missions. Adopted.

Rev. Mr. Lavery read a very interesting paper in regard to the situation of the meetings in Southern California, and it was resolved that the presbytery hereby approved of Rev. B. Pay Mills and his mode of work.

J. Shirley Ward, Esq., was granted the courtesy of the floor and requested to make some remarks in regard to the various superannuated ministers on the Pacific Coast.

The church served by the ladies in the parlors of the First church was as great a success as the day before.

In the afternoon session routine business was resumed.

Rev. Dr. Gordon read an important report on the contributions for the various boards of the Presbyterian Church.

The subject of a minister's home was again taken up and the committee was authorized to take measures in regard to it.

Rev. B. E. Howard moved a vote of thanks to the First church of Pasadena for its hospitality toward members of the presbytery and thanks to the ladies who furnished the abundant lunches and the choir for music, which motion was unanimously adopted.

The presbytery then adjourned.

ONE WAY TO DO AWAY WITH CRIMINALS. Much has been said recently about the unwholesome state of affairs in Pasadena Chinatown. The Chinese are the cause of the pestilence, and the sanitary condition of the place is filthy beyond description. The atmosphere on a close day is unpleasantly odorous. Few Caucasians care to penetrate the interior mysteries of the home of the Mongolian, the exterior surroundings hindering too strongly of the worse state of affairs that exist within.

Reference has once before been made in these columns to the amount of dirty wash water which the Chinese haulers throw out on the ground about their shanties. A local physician has called attention to the fact that this is opposed to all laws of health and sanitation, and that it is one of the surest ways to breed disease that could be devised.

In this connection it is surprising how many white people dare to send their clothing to such places to be washed. The methods employed would be revolting to everyone who has any real cleanliness. If only they were understood. Sprinkling the clothes direct from the mouth of the laundryman is one of the vilest of crimes, and one which would not be tolerated if white workmen were to attempt it. Up in San Francisco recently, according to the Chronicle, a leper was caught on a heap of soiled clothes in the rear of a Chinese wash-house, and this is but one instance.

While there are no noisier noisier in local Chinatown, the fact is apparent beyond dispute that this part of town is not what it should be from a sanitary standpoint. No one who has any sense would content to live in it as it is, nor would it be tolerated if inhabited by any other class of people. The most effective way to remedy this evil would be to withdraw the patronage now bestowed upon this undesirable class of residents. Then they would have to go.

HINTS FOR COLUMBUS DAY. Why not make the observance of Columbus day in Pasadena in keeping with the importance of the occasion?

The schools will doubtless hold public exercises in accordance with the program adopted by the National Committee. There ought to be more than this. It has been suggested that there be a civic parade in the afternoon, in which the public or organizations of town should participate.

John F. Godfrey Post, G. A. R., Phil Kearney Camp, No. 1, V. C. B., the Pasadena band, the fire department, together with the different lodges of town, would make up an imposing procession, and as the event is one of national importance, there is no reason why all of the organizations above named should not be equally interested.

Following the parade, a public meeting at some place centrally located would be in order, where patriotic songs, sung by a chorus of trained voices, and speeches by some of our crack orators, would be in keeping with the occasion.

It has further been suggested that there be a carnival at night, with six or seven booths of appropriate nature, such as, for instance, Columbus's discovery of America, his return to Spain and other incidents in connection with his voyages. Mounted men in costume, representing courtiers, Indians, etc., costumed men on foot, etc., with music, drum corps, etc. The carnival would, without doubt, prove a popular feature, and would attract many people to town. There would be large boats, having the best of the best, designed tableaux, red and blue fire and general illuminations.

SING HITS BACK. During the past few months several citizens have been mistreated by chickens and turkeys from their yards at night. In several instances suspicion fell on Lew Sing, a Chinaman of rather an unsavory reputation. Two weeks ago Sing was arrested by Constable Noseworthy on complaint of Henderson Boone, the colored blacksmith, for "stealing turkeys, but on account of Boone's nonappearance at court at the appointed time, Sing was discharged.

Yesterday an action was begun in Justice Boone's court by Sing for $250 damages. A. E. Metcalf represents the plaintiff, Ben W. Hah and J. G. Rossiter are looking after the interests of the defendant.

CRIMES READY FOR THE MASS MEETING. The Republicans of the town are already actively engaged in preparing for next Tuesday evening's big mass meeting, which is to be addressed by Hon. William Williams, Harvey Lindsey and Maj. Gard. It was decided yesterday to erect a large stand on the vacant lot at the northeast corner of Fair Oaks and Kansas street. It will be erected by the committee on such principles as will enable the speakers to be heard at some distance. M. H. Wright will have charge of the work. Music will be furnished by the band and the Colored Glee Club.

Prof. C. F. Holder leaves for San Francisco today. Mr. Holder will remain in Pasadena for some time longer.

At the time of sending in this report yesterday evening Mrs. Dr. J. S. Hodge was lying at the point of death.

An annual meeting of the Valley Hunt will be held tomorrow evening at the clubhouse on Colorado street at 7:30 o'clock.

Quite a number of Pasadenians are going to Santa Ana today to see the Silkwood-McKinney race. McKinney is the favorite here.

"Was Swedenborg King of Spiritualists or a Prophet Against Them?" will be the subject of a lecture by Mr. McVary in Lowe's Operahouse Sunday morning.

The meeting of the W. C. T. U. yesterday afternoon was well attended. The regular business of the association was transacted.

A meeting of the Mutual Burial Association was held yesterday afternoon at the parlors of the First church. The subject of the meeting was the appointment of a committee to draw up a set of by-laws for the association.

Rev. B. E. Howard moved a vote of thanks to the First church of Pasadena for its hospitality toward members of the presbytery and thanks to the ladies who furnished the abundant lunches and the choir for music, which motion was unanimously adopted.

THE PRESBYTERY THEN ADJOURNED.

Much has been said recently about the unwholesome state of affairs in Pasadena Chinatown. The Chinese are the cause of the pestilence, and the sanitary condition of the place is filthy beyond description. The atmosphere on a close day is unpleasantly odorous. Few Caucasians care to penetrate the interior mysteries of the home of the Mongolian, the exterior surroundings hindering too strongly of the worse state of affairs that exist within.

Reference has once before been made in these columns to the amount of dirty wash water which the Chinese haulers throw out on the ground about their shanties. A local physician has called attention to the fact that this is opposed to all laws of health and sanitation, and that it is one of the surest ways to breed disease that could be devised.

In this connection it is surprising how many white people dare to send their clothing to such places to be washed. The methods employed would be revolting to everyone who has any real cleanliness. If only they were understood. Sprinkling the clothes direct from the mouth of the laundryman is one of the vilest of crimes, and one which would not be tolerated if white workmen were to attempt it. Up in San Francisco recently, according to the Chronicle, a leper was caught on a heap of soiled clothes in the rear of a Chinese wash-house, and this is but one instance.

While there are no noisier noisier in local Chinatown, the fact is apparent beyond dispute that this part of town is not what it should be from a sanitary standpoint. No one who has any sense would content to live in it as it is, nor would it be tolerated if inhabited by any other class of people. The most effective way to remedy this evil would be to withdraw the patronage now bestowed upon this undesirable class of residents. Then they would have to go.

HINTS FOR COLUMBUS DAY. Why not make the observance of Columbus day in Pasadena in keeping with the importance of the occasion?

The schools will doubtless hold public exercises in accordance with the program adopted by the National Committee. There ought to be more than this. It has been suggested that there be a civic parade in the afternoon, in which the public or organizations of town should participate.

John F. Godfrey Post, G. A. R., Phil Kearney Camp, No. 1, V. C. B., the Pasadena band, the fire department, together with the different lodges of town, would make up an imposing procession, and as the event is one of national importance, there is no reason why all of the organizations above named should not be equally interested.

Following the parade, a public meeting at some place centrally located would be in order, where patriotic songs, sung by a chorus of trained voices, and speeches by some of our crack orators, would be in keeping with the occasion.

It has further been suggested that there be a carnival at night, with six or seven booths of appropriate nature, such as, for instance, Columbus's discovery of America, his return to Spain and other incidents in connection with his voyages. Mounted men in costume, representing courtiers, Indians, etc., costumed men on foot, etc., with music, drum corps, etc. The carnival would, without doubt, prove a popular feature, and would attract many people to town. There would be large boats, having the best of the best, designed tableaux, red and blue fire and general illuminations.

The Biggest Baby Show Ever Held—On the Race Course Yesterday—Why a Fight Did Not Take Place.

SANTA ANA. Babies are not classed as horticultural or agricultural products, but they formed the most prominent feature of the exhibit in the pavilion yesterday. While they can scarcely be classed in the above departments, yet they are certainly products and as such have an inalienable right to a place in any exhibition of Southern California resources. The baby show was the trump card at the pavilion, and no mistake. The astonishing number of entries was conclusive proof that the productiveness of "our Italy" is not confined to citrus and deciduous fruits, and that the fecundity of Southern California climate is indeed most wonderful.

Babies and mothers began to assemble at the pavilion as early as 9 o'clock. There were 10,330 before they were given a place on the platform. The body of the large hall was crowded with smiling spectators, and the floor was covered with babies.

The mothers were not less interesting in many respects than the babies. Imagine the mothers and fathers, each feeling in the bottom of her heart—and remember, too, that it is a woman's heart, that her darling was the most wonderful that ever had been or ever will be born! You may talk as you please about mental aberration, but that is the way the world is run.

Kelly's Actor. Daisywood and Geletta were each hitched to pneumatic tire sulky. Daisywood set the pace as Willis nodded for the word. The little felly began to pull away from her competitors, passing the head of the pack in 2:10, and the heat with but one skip in 2:52, distancing both Geletta and Kelly. When the little felly came back in front, the judges stand the crowd almost yelled themselves hoarse. A crowd surrounded the little animal to get a good look at her, entirely blocking the track.

The fourth and last race was a trotting 2:30 class for a purse of $300. The starters were Nemo, Nemo, Bell and Grinn's Charles. Steinway, Kelly's Conn, Chino Ranch's Thero, Covarrubias' Tono, and Tono's Bob. Nemo was at the pole, setting the pace, but at the quarter Tono was at his best in 37½. Conn forced ahead a length and passed the half in 1:13, and the three-quarters in 1:50½. Conn made a desperate effort on the home stretch, but Tono had reserved his strength for the final mile, and as Conn went off his feet within fifty yards of the goal, he passed him easily, winning the race by a length and a half.

The second heat Tono set the pace, Nemo falling second in line and pushing Tono hard past the quarter in 37½. At the half Conn had made a start, and was leading past the post in 1:14, when both Tono and Nemo came alongside the three, passing the quarter in a bunch at 1:52½. When they reached the grand stand, Tono increased his gait, coming well up in the bunch. It was a great heat all the way, and the race was a close one.

The third and last heat was more interesting than the preceding. While the time was 2:30, Nemo was driven this heat, and Kelly's actor, who had been in the first heat, was driven by Kelly's actor. Tono responded to McGreggor's familiar voice and forged a wide inch to the front. Conn bucked a nose, and Nemo and Kelly's actor were wire but half a neck behind Tono, who won the heat in 2:30½. Nemo was given second, and Kelly's actor third.

THE CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

A Bold Sneak Thief Captured by Mr. Wiggins.

The Way He Operated in the Exhibition Room—A Number of Country Visitors Yesterday—World's Fair Notes.

Frank Wiggins dealt out summary justice to a sneak thief yesterday at the Chamber of Commerce. For several days a harmless-looking man has been paying daily visits to the chamber, wandering about and evidently admiring nature's products. Yesterday, as he was making his rounds, Mr. Wiggins noticed him taking something from one of the tables. The alert superintendent promptly collared the man and made him disgorge. He had stowed away several pound peaches, the biggest bunch of grapes in the whole outfit, and his pockets were full of the choicest specimens of sample fruits sent in for exhibition by the hard-working ranchers. He had emptied a jar of Rivera walnuts when Wiggins captured him. A policeman was rung up and the fellow turned over to him.

Mr. Wiggins and his five assistants were busy yesterday afternoon chiding down the big pumpkins and water-melons, putting padlocks on the walnut jars and placing small packages of dynamite under the fruit plates. "Let anyone tackle these now if they think best," remarked the genial Wiggins in a warning tone as he tacked up a placard labeled "hands off." All the country people came into town yesterday to see the circus. Some of them contented themselves with the street parade, perfering to spend the afternoon taking in the sights of the city to putting their hard earned dollars into Robinson's plethoric pockets. Of this class a large number found their way to the Chamber of Commerce, where mother rocked the baby to sleep in the ladies' annex room and father took Johnnie and Susie by the hand and led them through the exhibit room to see the big fruit and garden truck which grew on "our range," and over which the city people make such a fuss.

Mr. Wiggins has just returned from the Santa Ana fair and is enthusiastic over the jelly, jam and preserve display of Mrs. Joplin, who has put in 2500 jars of 100 varieties of fruit, all grown on her three and one-half acre ranch. This exhibit will be sent to the World's Fair, and will help to build the jelly palace.

The world's seventy-five entries of miscellaneous articles for the fair yesterday. Thirteen beauties and twenty-five babies have been entered to contest for prizes. A novel feature of the fair will be incandescent lights burning in ice.

This morning the pavilion will be thrown open, and the work of putting the exhibits in place will be commenced. Complimentary tickets for the opening evening have been sent to all members of the Chamber of Commerce.

WORLD'S FAIR NOTES.

James A. Foshay, principal of the Monrovia school, has been appointed one of the World's Fair educational commissioners from this district in place of Will S. Monroe, who has returned from Southern California.

The following committee has been appointed to pass upon works of California artists before being shipped to the World's Fair: William Keith, A. F. Matthews, A. Joslin, F. Happersberger and Mary Curtis Richardson of San Francisco; Guy Rose of Los Angeles, and W. F. Jackson of Sacramento. According to department rulings "All work sent to Chicago is to be subject to the final judgment of the National Art Jury."

The Southern California World's Fair Association has received orders from the various organizations in the six southern counties for 1250 boxes of dried fruit for World's Fair purposes.

A late San Pedro dispatch has 2900 calla lily bulbs for the World's Fair.

AN EXCITING RUNAWAY.

At 8:30 o'clock last night an exciting runaway, fortunately unattended by loss of life or limb, occurred in the busiest part of the city. A black bronco, attached to a cart belonging to Martin Minar, who resides at Vernon, which had been tied to a tree near the entrance to the circus tents, broke its halter and galloped off up fourth street. With increasing speed the bronco, upon turning into Broadway, dashed down that thoroughfare to Second, where it again turned. An effort was made to stop the animal at Main street, but it made an extra spur and galloped down to Court street. Turning into Spring street the horse ran blindly up to First street, and with a crash collided with an electric car in front of the Hotel Nadeau. The shock wrecked the cart and threw the bronco down, and a butcher named Hoffman, with great presence of mind, ran up and sat upon its head, thereby preventing further trouble, until the arrival of Officer Rickenbach, who marched his captive to the station. As the streets were thronged with vehicles and passengers it is almost a miracle that no one was injured by the runaway.

Grand Pyrotechnic Display at Coronado.
On Friday evening there will be a magnificent display of fireworks on the ocean in front of the Hotel del Coronado, which will include many rare and beautiful novelties. The fleet of war ships will also go through their search-light practice, making altogether a very interesting and delightful aquatic evening exhibition.

You can't be
Niece some dealers always. They are ready to sell the medicine that pays them the most. What you want to buy is the one that does you the most good. Which one is it? Sometimes, it may be a matter of doubt. But in the case of Dr. Watson's Favorite Prescription, there's no room for doubt. It's a matter that can be proved.

With the facts before you, it's an insult to your intelligence to have something else offered as "just as good."

And here's the proof: Among all the medicines that claim to cure women's peculiar weaknesses, irregularities, and diseases, the "Favorite Prescription" is the only one that's guaranteed.

If it doesn't do all that's claimed for it, if it doesn't benefit or cure, in every case, you'll have your money back.

There's strength and vigor for every tired and feeble woman, health and a new life for every delicate and ailing woman—and if there's no help, there's no pay.

LADIES.
We wish to call attention to an article that has in the year past given perfect satisfaction to the many who have used it, and by their testimony been proven that Watson's Favorite Prescription, there's no crack or injure the finest shoe any lady may wear. The manufacturers of different polishes claim there is nothing injurious to leather or in their dressings. If it is not strange that they use the same pungent odor that is used to hide impurities in cheap soap? Their claim is not consistent as long as they do this. Peerless Shoe Polish needs no perfume to hide anything in its manufacture. It contains no acid, alcohol or ammonia. All we ask is an impartial trial according to directions, and we know you will say no other. Please ask your dealer for Watson's Peerless Polish, and take no other.
